CORDELL, OKLAHOMA

RUSSEL BOECKER
CHIEF OF POLICE

CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT OF THE CORDELL POLICE DEPARTMENT

Confidentiality is probably the most important factor in the success of the Cordell Police Department.

A major purpose of the Department is to provide a place in which people who are facing difficult situations can have a chance to talk openly and share their feelings. No one will feel free to talk about problems if it will be spread to people outside the Department.

When members of the Cordell Police Department commit themselves to keeping all shared information within the Department, trust gradually builds and members begin to express their feelings and share their difficult situations.

Understanding the importance of confidentiality, I promise not to repeat any information shared within the Cordell Police Department to anyone outside the Department.
